

Celebrate our Grand Opening 10th Anniversary!

What: Asian Business Association of Silicon Valley
Celebrating 10 years of service to Asian businesses throughout northern California.

Meet our guest speaker Sylvia Kwan, a finalist on CBS' Survivor Fiji (www.cbs.com)

The Real Business Jungle: Lessons from Survivor Fiji

Sylvia founded Kwan Henmi Architecture/Planning, Inc. in 1980. Her projects contain sustainable design components: Moscone West Convention Center, The Paramount residential high-rise, and AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants. Sylvia's personal recognitions include being named among San Francisco Business Times 75 Most Influential Women in Business, the American Diabetes Association's Woman of the Year, Asian Women's Resources Center's Outstanding Asian Woman Award, and the Asian Business League of San Francisco's 2000 Award for Achievement in the Business Community.

I got a rude awakening as soon as I arrived on the island for Survivor Fiji: my natural friendliness, leadership capabilities, and intelligence -- all traits that have made me successful in daily life -- turned out to be danger signs for me in the eyes of my tribemates. They want non-threatening, unassuming women, not strong and capable ones. I was a woman who was a leader (bossy); intelligent and educated (uppity), and most likely wealthier than them (She doesn't need the million dollars!). Why did I agree to join this show?!
