

www.caaba.org

A special "VIP" event plus contract opportunities

January 17, 2008 – Thursday, 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Kan's Restaurant

708 Grant Avenue, Chinatown, San Francisco, CA

Commissioner Rachelle Chong

California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC)

Rachelle Chong was appointed to the California Public Utilities Commission in January of 2006 by Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger. She is the first Asian American to be confirmed for this commission. Commissioner Chong was also a commissioner of the Federal Communications Commission appointed by former President Bill Clinton. She has been a corporate general counsel and a small business owner. Commissioner Chong would like to meet CAABA's members and other business owners. Come and support her position to have minority and women do business with California's public utilities - a high priority.

For more information about Commissioner Chong:

<http://www.cpuc.ca.gov/PUC/aboutus/Commissioners/05Chong/>

ALSO

One on One Procurement with Public Utilities

Utilities Invited: Verizon, Pacific Gas & Electric; AT&T, Comcast, Verizon, and others

CAABA Members – all associations: Free

Non-Members: $50/person

Buffet Dinner and Drinks Included.

RSVP by January 14. Contact the President or Membership Chair of your Association Or to Darlene Mar at Darlene@caaba.org and reference CAABA's event.

Sponsored by Verizon-in support of supplier diversity and communities

CAABA is the Council of Asian American Business Associations, which includes the following member organizations: Asian American Architects & Engineers, Asian Business Association of Silicon Valley, Asian American Contractors Association, Asian American Association of Certified Public Accountants/Attorneys, and East Bay Asian Design Professionals.